

Consider this guide a pass to an extraordinary week!

From the 4th-8th November, the city will transform into a global hub for professionals, offering a unique platform to explore the intricacies of the commodities industry. Escape the madness of commodities week for one evening, at the first TXF Dealmakers Mixer, in partnership with CommodityThursdays and WISTA! This guide is more than just a business tool – it's your gateway to uncovering Geneva's hidden gems, a preview of the evening's highlights, and insights from our esteemed partners.

Association Partners

On behalf of the CommodityThursdays team, we are delighted to support the Exile Team and welcome them to Switzerland. CommodityThursdays hosts networking drinks that bring together professionals from the commodities trading industry. We regularly hold events in major trading hubs around the world, including Geneva, Singapore, Dubai, London, Rotterdam, Paris, Miami, Istanbul, Athens, and Cairo. TXF organises must-attend events throughout the year, and we are thrilled to be their partner.

Mathilde De Mareuil, CEO, CommodityThursdays

COMMODITY CLUB
—Center of Competence—

We are delighted to once again support the Exile team in their enriching experiences for professionals, in line with Commodity Club Switzerland's values of bringing them together for fruitful discussions and conversations. We contribute to the sustainable transformation of the natural resources sector by providing educational and networking events where we welcome experts from across the value chain. We will continue to support valuable partners throughout Switzerland in pursuit of our mission.

Alexander Peters, Vice President, Commodity Club Switzerland

"Trade Finance Global is excited to partner with TXF for their commodity week, expanding on our long-standing relationship with the TXF team renowned for their high-quality thought leadership. At a time when global supply chains and commodity routes come under constant disarray, resilience is only possible as a result of collaboration between sectors. The opportunity to connect with like-minded industry specialists driven by mutual interest during Geneva Commodity Week is something which we at TFG value immensely. We look forward to meeting everyone, and seeing where discussions lead!"

Deepesh Patel, Editor-in-Chief, Trade Finance Global

THINGS TO DO

Got a couple of hours to kill?

Why not make your trip extra memorable and try out an activity:

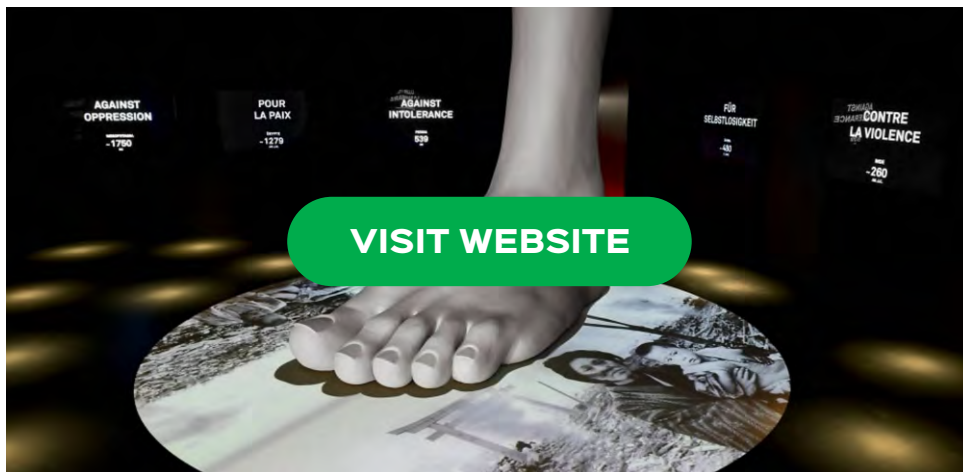

Geneva 3-hour Chocolate Tasting Tour and Old Town Visit

Immerse yourself in Switzerland's chocolate culture on a tour that shares the chocolate, sights, and stories of Geneva. With so many chocolate shops to choose from throughout the city, it can be challenging to find an authentic shop on your own. Luckily, on this tour, you don't have to worry about decisions or navigation. Your guide leads you to traditional shops that most other tourists miss while sharing the history of Swiss chocolate.

International Red Cross & Red Crescent Museum

Visit the The Humanitarian Adventure exhibition, which documents the work of the Red Cross from the humanitarian vision outlined by founder Henry Dunant in 1863, through its work during so many conflicts and natural disasters since then.

LOCAL RESTAURANTS

Indulge in a world of exquisite dining and vibrant bars during your visit to Geneva, specially curated by the TXF team. Whether you're seeking the perfect spot for a client dinner or have extra days to uncover the city's treasures, this collection promises an unforgettable experience.

El Cratin

Tuck in to tapas style, traditional Mexican delicacies & cocktails at this vibrant restaurant! Perfect for sharing
